Wakefield Civic Society

Forgotten Women of Wakefield

Edith Mackie Blue Plaque

Edith Mackie was a Wakefield suffragette who was imprisoned in Armley Gaol for her part in the campaign for votes for women. She was also a Wakefield councillor and Poor Law Guardian. Edith was born in Wakefield in 1870 and died in 1950. She lived at 1 Thornhill Terrace, Thornhill Lees, Wakefield.

FWW Spotlight: Our Volunteer Research Team

A True Philanthropist

Timeline

Forgotten Women of Wakefield

Philanthropy and Fire

BY NICKY HARTLEY